TOWN COMMITTEE.
Sept. 10th, 1861.

The Work Commenced.

The public have no doubt been a little curious to see how Gen. Fremont would begin the work of making the slaves of the rebels free. Where there is the power and the will to do a good deed, the act easily follows. The process is described in another column—it is simply to prove that the master has committed acts of rebellion or treason against the government, and to issue a deed to the slave that his services are henceforth his own, and that he has no master to control his acts.

The act of liberating these slaves will be known in history as the commencement of the downfall of that arrogant and horrible system which has brought so much woe to the white man as well as the black. The way to suppress the rebellion has been shown—let other generals of our army pursue the same pathway.

Kentucky.

The action of the Kentucky house of representatives on Wednesday was more decisive than was reported by telegraph. They resolved that the confederates had wantonily violated Kentucky soil, that the governor be requested to call out the military to expel them, that the United States be invoked to give aid, that Gen. Anderson be requested to enter immediately upon the discharge of his military duties, and appealing to the people to assist in repelling the invaders of Kentucky.

The senate has agreed to these resolutions by the decisive vote of 28 to 9; and this action of the legislature has not been taken a day too soon, for we learn to-day that the secessionists have commenced their warfare in that state, in their usual style, by robbing the banks at Bowling Green. The neutrality so much coveted by Kentucky thus proves to be a delusion. Henceforth there will be bloodshed and devastation in that state, like that of Missouri and Virginia.

The Newspaper Attacks upon Gen. Fremont.

The reporter of the New York Times makes a furious attack upon Gen. Fremont, on account of his inaccessibility. He infers that Gen. Fremont is doing nothing because he does not admit gentlemen of the press to his confidence, and tell them all about his plans. The people will thank Gen. Fremont for keeping all official and intermeddling civilians outside of his headquarters. They have proved themselves extremely injurious in innumerable instances during this war, and we hope we have a man at the head of the western department who will have determination enough in his composition to keep these fellows at a distance. They are, as a class, the most impudent and reckless of men. They are not all reporters for "leading New York newspapers," by any means, as there is a large proportion of adventurers who want military appointments, contracts, and some are no doubt secession spies. They hang around the headquarters of the commanding general, and if they cannot monopolize his time and attention, they seek the most ready opportunity to revenge themselves by driving him from his command, hoping that some more pliant or easy-going officer may be appointed, whom they can coax or drive.

We regret to see the press lend itself to the aid of vile schemers of this sort. Let them not weaken the public confidence in the military department, because their reporters are not permitted to know every movement in advance. The public desire results and not predictions, and the "great military journals" should be content to describe a battle after it has occurred, and refrain from all attempts to obtain knowledge which, if published, would aid the enemy, and prevent the success of our arms.

Gen. Fremont has an immense work up on his hands; the whole west is looking to him as the leader of military operations in the Mississippi valley, and it cannot be expected that he can devote his time to receiving calls from "distinguished men from abroad." The press would for better subserv the public interest by supporting him, than in finding fault with that which it does not understand.

Last Night's Report.

CLARKSBURG, Va., Sept. 12.
A battle took place about 3 o'clock Tuesday morning, near Summerville. Gen. Rosecranz, after making a reconnaissance, found Floyd's army five thousand strong, with sixteen field pieces, and entrenched in a powerful position on top of a mountain at Carricks Ferry, on the west side of Gauley river. The rear and extreme of both flanks were inaccessible, and the front was masked by heavy forces and close jungle. Colonel Lytle's 10th Ohio regiment of Benham's brigade was in advance, and drove a strong detachment of the enemy out of camp this side of the position, the site of which was unknown.

Shortly afterwards his scouts consisting of four companies suddenly discovered themselves on the face of a parapet battery, and long line of palisades for riflemen, when the battery opened fire. The remainder of the 10th and 13th Ohio were brought into action successively by Gen. Benham, and the 12th afterwards by Capt. Harstall, whose object was announced to be a reconnaissance. The enemy played terrifically with musketry, rifles, canister and shell, causing some casualties. Col. Lytle had several companies of his Irish to charge the battery when he was brought down by a shot in the leg.

Smith's 13th Ohio engaged the enemy on the left, and Col. Lowe's 12th Ohio directly in front. Lowe fell dead at the head of his regiment early in the day, in the hottest of the fire, by a ball in the forehead. McCullen's howitzer's battery and Snyder's two field pieces in the meantime were got into the best position possible under the circumstances, and soon silenced two of the rebel guns.

The fire slackened at intervals, but grew more furious as night approached, when the German brigade was led gallantly into action by Col. McCook, under the direction of Adjutant General Harstall, but after a furious fight of three hours, night compelled the recall of troops, and the men laid on their arms within a short distance of the enemy, ready to renew the contest the next morning.

Floyd fled during the night, sunk the boats in the river, and destroyed the temporary bridge which he had made when he first occupied the position. The turbulence and depth of the river, and the exhaustion of the troops, made it impossible to follow him. He left his camp equipage, horses and wagons, large quantities of ammunition, and fifty head of cattle.

Our loss is fifteen killed and seventy wounded. The rebellion is not ascertained. They carried their dead and wounded with them, but it was certainly serious.

Capt. Greathouse, of Cincinnati, Capt. McCullen, and Lieut. Snyder, of Ohio, are among the wounded, but not dangerously. Twenty men of Col. Lytle's, who were taken by the rebels, were recaptured, and Floyd's personal baggage, with that of his officers, was taken.

Gen. Benham's brigade, which suffered most, was commanded by him in person, and McCook led his brigade.

Generals Rosecranz and Benham, Col. McCook, Col. Lytle, Capt. McCullen, Maj. Burge of the 10th Ohio, and other officers, displayed considerable personal gallantry. The troops were exclusively from Ohio, and showed great bravery.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 12.
A special to the Journal, dated Washington, Sept. 11th, says McClellan has carried Gen. Banks' command is within a short distance.

Gen. Butler is expected to-morrow. The Evansville Journal says the steamer Sue Evans, under command of a gun squad from that place, captured a boat with 1000 barrels of salt, destined for the confederacy.

Southern papers say Capt. W. F. Lynch, C. S. A., late chief of bureau of detail and equipment of confederate army, and Col. Jones, 4th Alabama regiment, died at Orange Court House, on the 26th.

St. Louis, Sept. 12.
Connection between the Pacific and Iron Mountain railroads was completed to-day. The junction of roads was made by order of Gen. Fremont, and will enable the government to transport troops and army stores from one section of the state to another, without reshipment. Troops can also be transferred from the river without delay.

Capt. Boyd, commander of secession forces, Buchanan county, marched into St. Joseph on Saturday last, plundered stores of some $4,000 worth of goods.

Latest advices from Paducah, state that the impression prevailed, that the enemy would attack that place.

The circulation of the Dubuque Herald has been interrupted in this county by order of the provost marshal. Capt. Hazzard, U. S. N., has arrived.

BURLINGTON, Iowa, Sept. 12.
Six secessionists from Memphis, Missouri, who were identified as having served under Martin Green, were arrested yesterday, near Salem, Iowa, and with them a drove of 180 cattle, said to be for Chicago. The men were held at M. Pleasant, and the cattle will be consigned.

St. Louis, Sept. 12.
Provost Marshal McKinstry will issue the following proclamation to-morrow:

"The Major General commanding the western department, having satisfactory evidence that Thos. L. Snead, of this city and county of St. Louis and State of Missouri, has been taking active part with the enemies of the United States in the present insurrectionary movement against its government, and the military commission now in session at the arsenal in this city having received the facts of these delinquencies, the major general commanding has executed and ordered to be published the following deeds of punishment. [Here follow two deeds declaring by authority of law and power invested in the commanding general, Frank Lewis and Hiram Reed, heretofore held to service or labor by said Thomas L. Snead, to be free and forever discharged from the bonds of servitude, giving them full right and authority to have use of arms, and to be free from all service as to them or their property, without any accountability whatever to said Thomas L. Snead, or any one to claim by, through, or under him.]

A party of secessionists went to the house of Judge Birch, member of the state convention, a few days since, with the intention of killing him and his son, but they were fired upon and repulsed. Judge Birch came to St. Louis and to-day returned to his home in Clinton county, with arms for the Union men in that county. The life of Judge Birch, late of the supreme court, who is one of our best judges, and has been the champion of Capt. Magoffin, lately sentenced in Lexington to be hanged, is executed.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 12.
W. H. Winder a brother of the rebel general, is in custody charged with treasonable communication with the enemy. He has another brother, a resident of Washington and the owner of the Winder building there which is occupied by the Pennsylvania. Mr. W. H. Winder has been the Philadelphia correspondent of the Daily News. All his papers have been taken and are being examined by the authorities.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.
It is the general opinion here that a general engagement cannot be much longer delayed. Good military critics however, declare that they expect no serious fighting for two or three weeks.

All was quiet at Chain Bridge last night and the rebels have not shown themselves this morning.

New York, Sept. 12.

Mr. Hutson to-day reported a bill to punish treason in the state. It was made the special order for to-morrow.

The bill making it felony, the waging of war against the United States, enticing troops for the confederates, or inducing any one to do so, or parading with any company with intent to join the confederates for the invasion of Kentucky by any citizen as confederate soldier; to be punishable by death. The act to go into effect in ten days, and not to be applicable to those who return to their allegiance within sixty days.

St. Louis, Sept. 12.
The general sensation of to-day has been the arrival of the regular army force which was engaged in the battle of Wilson's Creek. The force comprises Totten's and Dubois batteries, and Maj. Steele's battalion of infantry, in all about eight hundred in number. The train was expected to arrive at 11 o'clock, but did not reach here until nearly 6 P. M., to the great exhaustion of Gen. McKinstry's brigade, which was formed to do escort duty early in the morning; to the disappointment of thousands of spectators, who lined the streets through which the troops were to pass. The display of flags along the route was surprisingly fine. A great many well known secession families, anxious to prove their loyalty, had the soldiers and strips hung out to the breeze from their mansions.

The regular troops have gone into camp at Benton barracks. Totten's and Dubois batteries are to be incorporated in Frank Blair's new artillery regiment.

We shall have another military sensation to-morrow, upon the inauguration of Benton barracks.

There is nothing of importance from the interior to-night.

The military commissioners had Richmond papers, and received a dispatch from Gov. Morton, of Indiana, saying that the confederate troops in Kentucky had seized upon the banks in Bowling Green and appropriated the money.

It is reported that Capt. Buchanan, formerly commander of the Washington navy yard, but dismissed from the service, has entered the rebel army.

B. P. Corless, printer of New York, says this evening ordered sent to Fort Lafayette, for printing ballbills for the rebels.

The government has been paying out more than $2,000,000 per day for several days on account of the war.

The 6th auditor has received answers to circulars sent to prominent Union men in Missouri, Kentucky and Maryland, from which it appears that a very large number of mail contractors in those states are rebels. No money will be paid those who are disloyal.

Brigade Surgeon Ruddy, of Chicago, has been ordered on duty to Gen. King's staff, and Stuart, of Indiana, to Gen. Andrew Porter's.

The correspondent—There is considerable feeling here among leading men, caused by the action of Gen. McClellan in ordering the return of fugitive slaves, or rather their arrest in camps and imprisonment in jail to await the claim of their masters.

ously and effectively working for the public good.

The report that the Mississippi Tigers regiment, opposite Leesburg, have mutilated, is believed by the government.

Postmaster-General Blair went to Missouri this afternoon. He will see what Gen. Fremont needs, and take measures to supply him.

A carefully prepared report, presented to the sanitary commission to-day, speaks very encouragingly of the condition of the troops at and near Alexandria. There were but few patients with diseases of a malarious type—much fewer than ten days since. The cases of diarrhea are diminishing. The little dysentery is of a very mild type.

Gen. McClellan to-day restored to the New York 79th their forfeited colors. The Scotchmen received them with enthusiasm, and with outcries of "God save the colors." They gave three times three and a cheer to Secretary Cameron. There were few dry eyes in the regiment.

After the war, the Secretary pledged, for the whole term of his life, his roof and purse to every man in the regiment who had been commanded by his brother, and had witnessed his death.

The rebel band on Monson's Hill on Sunday night played Dixie, and the Star Spangled Banner.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.
The skirmish near Lewisville, yesterday has quickened the enthusiasm of all our troops, in view of the greater "skirmish" which cannot be far distant, and which the one is regarded as but a preliminary touch. The particulars of the affair have been substantially covered in the general newspaper report, and yet there are some items which may be of some interest.

The fire of the rebels was very poor. Little damage was done by any of their shells, except by the first one thrown, our men not being then on the lookout. They shells fell short of our thirty two pounder, which from the distance of mile silenced the rebel battery, unseated a number of cavalry, and put the infantry to flight. Griffin's battery also did good work, firing in all some forty shells, which plumped among the rebels. Their (rebel) battery was supported by a regiment of cavalry and two of infantry. After the skirmish our cavalry went as far as Old Church, two miles from Lewisville, this side; but detected no enemy. Official figures place our loss at two killed and five wounded. General McClellan was received with the greatest enthusiasm by the returning troops, whom he met at their encampment. The Marylanders praised their good conduct under fire, spoke kindly to the wounded, and said to one of them, of the 75th—"I mistake you. You are brave men." The soldier's reply was—"No, General, we deserved your rebuke."

MORNING DESPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.
The following is Gen. Rosecranz' official report:

CAMP SCOTT, Sept. 11.
To Col. E. D. Townsend:—We yesterday marched seventeen and a half miles, and reached the enemy's intrenchment in front of Carricks Ferry, driving head advanced outposts and pickets before us. We found him occupying a strongly entrenched position, covered by a forest too dense to admit its being seen at a distance of 300 yards. His force was five regiments besides the one driven in as pickets. We began a strong reconnaissance, which proceeded to such a length that we were about to assault the position in the flank and in front, when early coming on, our troops being completely exhausted, I drew them out of the woods and posted them in the order of battle, behind a ridge immediately in front of the enemy's position, where they rested on their arms till morning.

Shortly afterwards a runaway contraband came in and reported that the enemy had crossed the Gauley during the night by means of the ferry and a bridge which they had completed. Col. Ewing was ordered to take possession of the camp, which he did at about 7 o'clock, capturing a few prisoners and a stand of colors, a considerable quantity of arms, with the quartermaster's stores, mess and camp equipage. The enemy have destroyed the bridge across the Gauley, which here rushes through a deep gorge, and our troops being still much fatigued, and having no material for immediately replacing the bridge, it was thought prudent to encamp the troops, and occupy the ferry and captured camp, sending a few rifled cannon shot after the enemy, to produce a moral effect. Our loss will probably amount to twenty killed and one hundred wounded. The enemy's loss has not been ascertained, but from reports it must have been considerable.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12.
Tribune's correspondence, says that this evening received a dispatch from Gov. Morton, of Indiana, saying that the confederate troops in Kentucky had seized upon the banks in Bowling Green and appropriated the money.

It is reported that Capt. Buchanan, formerly commander of the Washington navy yard, but dismissed from the service, has entered the rebel army.

B. P. Corless, printer of New York, says this evening ordered sent to Fort Lafayette, for printing ballbills for the rebels.

The government has been paying out more than $2,000,000 per day for several days on account of the war.

The 6th auditor has received answers to circulars sent to prominent Union men in Missouri, Kentucky and Maryland, from which it appears that a very large number of mail contractors in those states are rebels. No money will be paid those who are disloyal.

WAR MEETINGS.

A meeting in aid of the movement to form the new regiment will be held: At Edgerton, on TUESDAY, September 17th, at 7 o'clock P. M.

At Child's Station, in Lima, on FRIDAY EVENING, Sept. 13th.

At Maxonville, on MONDAY EVENING, Sept. 16th.

Good speakers will be present at the above meetings.

ADVANCE ON COTTON GOODS.—We learn that there has been quite an advance recently in the New York market on all cotton goods. Atlantic heavy sheeting, within two months past, could be bought at 7 1/2; they now cost, in gold, 12 1/2. Pacific and other heavy goods have advanced 50 to 70 per cent; and all other cotton goods in proportion. Woolen goods would be cheaper, but they fully sustain the usual prices, owing to the mills being employed in making military clothing.

THE FIRE ZOUAVES.—We think some effort ought to be made in this city to fill up Capt. Britton's company. It will be hardly creditable to our city to have a company leave short of its proper number. The eighth regiment will be ready next week and what is done for the Fire Zouaves should be attended to speedily.

THE FAIR GROUND.—The committee who have the management of the county fair, have put the grounds in complete order preparatory to the coming fair. Those who desire to train their horses on the grounds can do so. The spile bridge at the foot of Jackson street and the road have been put in order to cross to the fair grounds.

NEW GOODS.—Smith & Bostwick have received thirty cases of new goods and lots of carpets. They are bound to be ready for the full trade, with a large stock and the best of goods.

McKAY & BROS.—This firm have been receiving new goods for a number of days past, and in addition to filling their store they have filled their half of the street.

THE JANEVILLE CITY ZOUAVES.—This fine company of young men have a public drill at their armory in the Hyatt House Hall this evening. It is understood to be their last in this city, and those who wish to see good manuevering in the Zouave drill had better attend. We hope to see a good turnout of spectators, for it is a compliment these patriotic young men richly deserve.

CAPTAIN STRONG'S HEROIC EXPLOIT.—A Washington correspondent of the Chicago Times says, that the recent exploit of Capt. Strong, of the 2d Wisconsin:

I learn from the State Agent of Wisconsin the following additional facts: Captain Strong was on foot, not on horse back, and had his pistols (revolvers) along behind him. Two of his captors were mounted, and the four infantry soldiers blocked his way in front. They demanded his arms which he refused to deliver. Putting both hands behind him, he took hold of both his pistols, ascertained that they were ready, drew them both slowly out, and, while his captors were gazing on him, presented one pistol at each one of the mounted men, fired and killed them both, and overpowered the smoke he then turned and ran. The four infantry soldiers pursued. When one of them got near him he turned and shot him, and the other three abandoned the chase.

Meeting in Fulton.

Persons desiring to call a large number of the citizens of Fulton met at the school house, in Fulton, Wis., and organized by choosing A. Burlingame chairman, and John H. Burgess secretary.

Persons attending the meeting being stated to be in favor of our sentiments in relation to the war, and to take means to render such aid as prosecution as is in our power, by contributing funds and procuring the outfit of volunteers for the Rock and Green county regiment.

A. M. Burlingame, Esq., of Janesville, addressed the meeting upon the importance of immediate action in behalf of the country, and the importance of a united effort to crush the rebellion.

J. H. Burgess, Esq., followed in a short and pithy speech, urging prompt and vigorous action in procuring volunteers.

A number of the citizens of Fulton also spoke in favor of sustaining the administration in prosecuting the war.

A vote was taken to canvass the district, consisting of Alfred Burlingame, Charles Burlingame and Nathan Graves.

A resolution was adopted, that we as citizens of Fulton pledge ourselves to lay aside all party prejudice and support the administration in prosecuting the war with vigor.

This resolution was supported by both democrats and republicans.

The meeting then adjourned.

AN APPEAL.

To the Citizens of People in Rock County.

There are men capable of bearing arms, and of government and its institutions, and of the best ever created by man. They are not a danger; yes, upon the very verge of a danger, and you are called to their aid. Your country calls loudly in its hour of peril. Will you say like some of our neighbors, "I am not a soldier, and I am not a citizen?"

It is not a matter of life and death, but of honor and of the future of our country. You are called to arms, and will you attempt to offend the country by your non-response? Do you think you cannot leave your domestic and social duties? I tell you it is your duty to preserve them to enjoy them, and let the enemy triumph, and the country perish. Do you fear for your life? It is not a matter of life and death, but of honor and of the future of our country.

WAR MEETINGS.

A meeting in aid of the movement to form the new regiment will be held:

At Edgerton, on TUESDAY, September 17th, at 7 o'clock P. M.

At Child's Station, in Lima, on FRIDAY EVENING, Sept. 13th.

At Maxonville, on MONDAY EVENING, Sept. 16th.

Good speakers will be present at the above meetings.

ADVANCE ON COTTON GOODS.—We learn that there has been quite an advance recently in the New York market on all cotton goods. Atlantic heavy sheeting, within two months past, could be bought at 7 1/2; they now cost, in gold, 12 1/2. Pacific and other heavy goods have advanced 50 to 70 per cent; and all other cotton goods in proportion. Woolen goods would be cheaper, but they fully sustain the usual prices, owing to the mills being employed in making military clothing.

THE FIRE ZOUAVES.—We think some effort ought to be made in this city to fill up Capt. Britton's company. It will be hardly creditable to our city to have a company leave here short of its proper number. The eighth regiment will be ready next week and what is done for the Fire Zouaves should be attended to speedily.

THE FAIR GROUND.—The committee who have the management of the county fair, have put the grounds in complete order preparatory to the coming fair. Those who desire to train their horses on the grounds can do so. The spile bridge at the foot of Jackson street and the road have been put in order to cross to the fair grounds.

Captain Strong's Heroic Exploit.—A Washington correspondent of the Chicago Times says, that the recent exploit of Capt. Strong, of the 2d Wisconsin:

I learn from the State Agent of Wisconsin the following additional facts: Captain Strong was on foot, not on horse back, and had his pistols (revolvers) slung behind him. Two of his captors were mounted, and approached him on both sides, while the four infantry soldiers blocked his way in front. They demanded his arms which he agreed to deliver.

Putting both hands behind him, he took hold of both his pistols, ascertained that they were ready, drew them both slowly out and, while his captors were paralyzed with astonishment at the boldness of the action, presented one pistol at each one of the mounted men, fired and killed them both. Under cover of the smoke he then turned and ran. The four infantry soldiers pursued. When one of them got near him he turned and shot him, and the other three abandoned the chase.

Meeting in Fulton.

Pursuant to a call a large number of the citizens of Fulton met at the school house, in district No. 5, and organized by choosing A. Burlingame chairman, and John Harvey secretary.

The object of the meeting being stated to be to express our sentiments in relation to the war and to take means to render such aid in its prosecution as is in our power, by subscribing funds and procuring the enlistment of volunteers for the Rock and Green county regiment.

H. A. Patterson, Esq., of Janesville, addressed the meeting upon the importance of immediate action in behalf of the country, and the importance of a united effort to crush the rebellion.

J. M. Burgess, Esq., followed in a short and pithy speech, urging prompt and vigorous action in procuring volunteers.

A number of the citizens of Fulton also spoke in favor of sustaining the administration in prosecuting the war.

A committee was chosen to canvass the district, consisting of Alfred Burlingame, Charles Bates and Nathan Graves.

A resolution was adopted, that we as citizens of Fulton pledge ourselves to lay aside all party animosities and support the administration in prosecuting the war with vigor.

The meeting then adjourned.

AN APPEAL.

To the Citizens of People in Rock County.

First, to the men capable of bearing arms: Your government and its institutions are the best ever created by man. They are the danger; yes, upon the very verge of destruction, and you are called to the rescue. Your country calls loudly in its hour of peril. Will you say like some of our men ready for the contest it is not our duty to make ourselves brave and carry true son of a noble ancestor black and burn with indignation, as he looks at the condition of his country. You are called to fight, and will you attempt to offer an excuse why you do not respond. Do you think you cannot leave your domestic and social engagements? I tell you it is your only chance of preserving them to enjoy the future; let the enemy triumph and the future is lost. Do you fear for your life? It is not your life that you are called to meet your enemy, better a short and times lose your life than to lose your life and become slaves. Oh, how much a case, that "He that would save his life shall lose it." Come, then, like brave men and true, trusting in God and may the powder be dry and the charge that burns shall be a beacon to eternity. Have you property and a family that require your attention? Let one care for the other while you go to war and fight in defence of both. A mother's sacrifice will surely be made if her son remains idle, and look coolly on such the enemy comes to your very door which he will surely do unless strong arms drive him back. All is at stake—our homes, our children, our property, our honor, our honor, and all we hold dear must be lost if we lose them. God forbid!

Second, to the men of wealth: Your property is not safe unless the government is maintained. When anarchy reigns and traitors reign in crime shall rule, how soon will the property be destroyed? It is needed, and must be part become the means of its preservation. Money is needed—the government needs it, the wives and children of volunteers need it, in fact, nothing can be done without it. Then hold it not with a miser's grasp, hug it not to your bosom, but create treasure with which you can serve your country. If you have been fortunate in your fortune serve a good purpose. There has come when selfishness and greed have given place to more noble feelings, and five institutions must be preserved, and have given us wealth and all our other things, and no sacrifice is too great to be made for the children of our country to enjoy. Come forward, then, with your money and your means, and make a free will offering upon the altar of your country's cause. Be generous, and posterity will have reason to bless you. Give your money and save your thousands, and it is necessary, let it all go, for there is no other way to save money, and without it, wealth is a curse rather than a blessing. A financial object is now presented for your consideration: Rock and Green ought to be a regiment into camp within the next few days. Money will be necessary to accomplish it, and the time is short; it is now forward and present it, and you will be importuned.

Wait no longer, but make such an effort as the case demands, and success will be certain.

Think of the ladies: A sacrifice is demanded of you. Will you make it? There is no power so potent as that which you possess, and which shall your influence be felt? Your husbands and brothers are called for, and you have the power to send them money, or hold them back. They are waiting to go, and shall a tear from your remembrance? Shall they have your hearty encouragement? They need your cheerful and willing assistance, and in no way can you show your love for them so well as by helping them in this holy cause.

If you come forward in the right spirit and send your aid with your blessings upon them, and your prayers for their success, they will love you more, and it will nerve them to the danger, for then they will realize the priceless treasures which they possess, and which they are called upon to defend. Do not dry your tears, if any you have, and send aid to them, go. They will not think you cold and heartless, but they will admire your heroism, and love you for your sacrifice. Again I appeal to you, and call you to go, for I know your power. Let it be in the right direction, and blessed be the day when you can not estimate, and be proud of it. C. F. DICKEY.

Order, Wis., Sept. 12, 1861.

WAR MEETING AT EMERALD GROVE.

Last night a spirited war meeting was held at Emerald Grove in the Congregational Church. It was an adjourned meeting from last Tuesday evening. There was a large attendance, the church being full. Speeches were made by Sheriff Putnam, H. N. Comstock, Wm. Rucker, of the Kager Guards, and others whose names we have not learned. Seventy-five dollars was subscribed and six new volunteers were obtained. The people of Bradford are awake and will give a good account of themselves.

The Work Commenced. The public have no doubt been a little curious to see how Gen. Fremont would begin the work of making the slaves of the rebels free. Where there is the power and the will to do a good deed, the act easily follows. The process is described in another column—it is simply to prove that the master has committed acts of rebellion or treason against the government, and to issue a deed to the slave that his services are henceforth his own, and that he has no master to control his acts.

Kentucky. The action of the Kentucky house of representatives on Wednesday was more decisive than was reported by telegraph. They resolved that the confederates had wantonly violated Kentucky soil, that the governor be requested to call out the military to expel them, that the United States be invoked to give aid, that Gen. Anderson be requested to enter immediately upon the discharge of his military duties, and appealing to the people to assist in repelling the invaders of Kentucky.

The senate has agreed to these resolutions by the vote of 26 to 9; and this action of the legislature has not been taken a day too soon, for we learn to-day that the secessionists have commenced their warfare in that state, in their usual style, by robbing the banks at Bowling Green. The neutrality so much coveted by Kentucky thus proves to be a delusion. Henceforth there will be bloodshed and devastation in that state, like that of Missouri and Virginia.

The Newspaper Attacks upon Gen. Fremont. The reporter of the New York Times makes a furious attack upon Gen. Fremont, on account of his inaccessibility. He infers that Gen. Fremont is doing nothing because he does not admit gentlemen of the press to his confidence, and tell them all about his plans. The people will thank Gen. Fremont for keeping all officials and intermeddling civilians outside of his headquarters. They have proved themselves extremely injurious in innumerable instances during this war, and we hope we have a man at the head of the western department who will have determination enough in his composition to keep these fellows at a distance. They are, as a class, the most impudent and reckless of men. They are not all reporters for "leading New York newspapers," by any means, as there is a large proportion of adventurers who want military appointments, contracts, and some are no doubt secession spies. They hang around the headquarters of the commanding general, and if they cannot monopolize his time and attention, they seek the most ready opportunity to revenge themselves by driving him from his command, hoping that some more pliant or easy-going officer may be appointed, whom they can coax or drive.

We regret to see the press lend itself to the aid of vile schemers of this sort. Let them not weaken the public confidence in the military department, because their reporters are not permitted to know every movement in advance. The public desire results and not predictions, and the "great military journals" should be content to describe a battle after it has occurred, and refrain from all attempts to obtain knowledge which, if published, would aid the enemy, and prevent the success of our arms.

Gen. Fremont has an immense work up on his hands; the whole west is looking to him as the leader of military operations in the Mississippi valley, and it cannot be expected that he can devote his time to receiving calls from "distinguished men from abroad." The press would far better subserve the public interest by supporting him, than in finding fault with that which it does not understand.

Correspondence of the Janesville Daily Gazette. From the Janesville Fire Zouaves. HEADQUARTERS 5TH REGIMENT, CAMP RANDALL, MADISON, Sept. 11. DEAR GAZETTE:—Thinking that probably our friends in Janesville would be pleased to hear from the camp, I will write you as I promised. Our regiment is nearly full; eight companies are in camp. One splendid company from Shelbygan arrived this evening. They number over one hundred men. The company is composed of the best material I ever saw.

I assure you we are all pleased with our regimental officers. If I am not greatly mistaken, Col. Morphy will prove as good a colonel as this state has sent into the field. There have never been a better lot of men than there is in this regiment. They are tough, strong, athletic men. Our boys are all well and in fine spirits, and when they get a chance to "go in on their muscles," will make their mark on secessors "or any other man." A few more men are needed to fill the company to the requisite number. Will not our friends in Janesville aid us in procuring a few recruits, so that we can leave the state with a hundred and one men? Yours truly, J. A. W.

RIGHT EXAMINATION OF VOLUNTEERS.—The Madison Patriot says that Adjutant General Udey complains of the strictness with which men for the 7th and 8th regiments are examined. He says that it looks to him as if the regiments were to be prepared for a grand parade before the Angel Gabriel, instead of being urgently wanted to face a challenging foe. Strong hearty men have been rejected, who can stand up with the average of men in doing a hard day's work. The general thinks that when men are so much needed, and as the enemy are taking all who can get, even to boys aged 14 and 15 years and old men, such strictness is not advisable or warrantable.

BUSINESS REVIVING IN NEW ENGLAND.—The Phenix (R. I.) Journal says that the mills in that vicinity are starting up again. The Lippitt mill started last Monday, running half time. The Harris & Lippitt mill at Phenix, the Harrisville mills, and one other mill at Natick—the large brick one—will start next Monday, all running half time. The lower mill at Natick has not been stopped, but runs, we believe, full time. The Duncann Manufacturing Company, at Pawtucket, Massachusetts, started their works on Monday last. We hear of other establishments in that vicinity that are about to resume operations.

It is expected that the "Sharpshooters" will leave Camp Randall next Wednesday for Col. Bardeen's rendezvous.

SOLDIERS' PAY AND BOUNTY.—There is still some misapprehension in regard to the pay and bounty which the law allows to volunteers. Their pay is $13 per month, and $42 a year for clothing. The bounty, already provided, is $100 at the end of enlistment; but in addition to this, there is no doubt that each man will be granted a warrant for 160 acres of land, but there is no law, as yet, for a land bounty. In this state every soldier who has a family, or persons dependent upon him for support, receives $5 per month from the state treasury.

At Boscobel a little child was locked in a small room by its mother, while she stepped out. On her return she found that the child had got into a boiler full of water and drowned.

A LITTLE COUNTY WITH A BIG HEART.—Ritchie county, in western Virginia, is a very small county, but she gave 700 votes for the Union, and out of these 700 voters, 500 have gone to make good their ballots with their bayonets, and others are getting ready to do the same.

The flag presented to Capt. Totten was a most beautiful banner. Judge Kuhn presented it in a felicitous speech, which was replied to by Capt. Totten in a soldier like manner.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE. BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report. CLARKSBURG, Va., Sept. 12. A battle took place about 3 o'clock Tuesday morning, near Summerville, Ga. Gen. Rosencranz, after making a reconnoissance, found Floyd's army of 12,000 men, with sixteen field pieces, and entrenched in a powerful position on top of a mountain at Carrizillo Ferry, on the west side of Gauley river. The rear and extreme of both flanks were inaccessible, and the front was masked by heavy forces and close jungle. Colonel Lytle's 10th Ohio regiment of Benham's brigade was in advance, and drove a strong detachment of the enemy out of camp this side of the position, the site of which was unknown.

Shortly afterwards his scouts consisting of four companies suddenly discovered themselves on the face of a parapet battery, and long line of palisades for riflemen, when the battery opened fire. The remainder of the 10th and 13th Ohio were brought into action successively by Gen. Benham, and the 12th afterwards by Capt. Harstall, whose object was obviously to be a reconnoissance. The enemy played terrifically with musketry, rifles, canister and shell, causing some casualties. Col. Lytle had several companies of his Irish to charge the battery when he was brought down by a shot in the leg.

Smith's 13th Ohio engaged the enemy on the left, and Col. Lowe's 12th Ohio directly in front. Lowe fell dead at the head of his regiment early in the day, in the hottest of the fire, by a ball in the forehead. McMullen's howitzer battery and Snyder's 12th field pieces in the meantime were got into the best position possible under the circumstances, and soon silenced two of the rebel guns.

The fire slackened at intervals, but grew more furious as night approached, when the German brigade was led gallantly into action by Col. McCook, under the direction of Adjutant General Harstall, but after a furious fight of three hours, night compelled the recall of troops, and the men laid on their arms within a short distance of the enemy, ready to renew the contest the next morning.

Floyd fled during the night, sunk the boats in the river, and destroyed the temporary bridge which he had made when he first occupied the position. The turbulence and depth of the river, and the exhaustion of the troops, made it impossible to follow him. He left his camp equipage, horses and wagons, large quantities of ammunition, and fifty head of cattle.

Our loss is fifteen killed and seventy wounded. The rebels lost dead and wounded with them, but it was certainly serious. Capt. Gray of Cincinnati, Capt. McMillen, and Lieut. Snyder, of Ohio, are among the wounded, but not dangerously. Twenty men of Col. Tyler's, who were taken by Floyd at Cross Lanes, were recaptured, and Floyd's personal baggage, with that of his officers, was taken.

Gen. Benham's brigade, which suffered most, was commanded by him in person, and McCook led his brigade. Generals Rosencranz and Benham, Col. McCook, Col. Lytle, Capt. McMullen, Maj. Burge of the 10th Ohio, and other officers, displayed considerable personal gallantry. The troops were exclusively from Ohio, and showed great bravery.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 12. A special to the Journal, dated Washington, Sept. 11th, says McClellan has carried Hall's Hill, losing 15 killed. Gen. Banks' command is within a short distance.

Gen. Butler is expected to-morrow. The Evansville Journal says the steamer Sex Eras, under command of a gun squad from that place, captured a boat with 1000 barrels of salt, destined for the confederacy. Southern papers say Capt. W. F. Lynch, C. S. A., late chief of bureau of detail and equipment of confederate army, and Col. Jones, 4th Alabama regiment, died at Orange Court House, on the 25th.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 12. Connection between the Pacific and Iron Mountain railroads was completed to-day. This junction of roads was made by order of Gen. Fremont, and will enable the government to transport troops and army stores from one section of the state to another, without reshipment. Troops can also be transferred from the river without delay.

Capt. Boyd, commander of section forces, Buchanan company, moved into St. Joseph on Saturday last, plundered stores of some $4,000, and carried off goods. Latest advices prevailed, that the enemy would not attack that place.

The circulation of the Dubuque Herald has been interrupted in this county by order of the provost marshal. Capt. Hazzard, U. S. N., has arrived.

BERLINGSO, Iowa, Sept. 12. Six secessionists from Memphis, Missouri, who were identified as having served under Martin Green, were arrested yesterday, near Salem, Iowa, and had with them a drove of 150 cattle, said to be for Chicago. The men were held at Mt. Pleasant, and the cattle will be confiscated.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 12. Provost Marshal McKinstry will issue the following proclamation to-morrow: "The Major General commanding the western department, having satisfactory evidence that John L. Sneed, of this city and county of St. Louis and State of Missouri, has been taking active part with the enemies of the United States in the present insurrectionary movement against its government, and the military commission now in session at the arsenal in this city having reported the facts to these headquarters, as the result of its deliberations, the major general commanding has executed and ordered to be published the following deeds of manumission. [Here follow two deeds declaring by authority of law and power invested in the commanding general, Frank Lewis and Hiram Reed, heretofore held to service or labor by said Thomas L. Sneed, to be free and forever discharged from the bonds of servitude, giving them full right and authority to have use of and control their own labor or service, as to them may seem proper, without any accountability whatever to said Thomas L. Sneed, or any one to claim by, through, or under him.]"

A party of secessionists went to the house of Judge Birch, member of the state convention, a few days since, with the intention of killing him and his son, but they were fired upon and repulsed. Judge Birch came to St. Louis and to-day returned to his home in Clinton county, with arms for the Union men in that county. The life of Judge Ryland, late of the supreme court, who is in the hands of the rebels, has been threatened by Capt. Magoffin, lately sentenced in Lexington to be hanged, is executed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12. The firing in the direction of Chain Bridge this morning, was from artillery practice. Two dead bodies were recovered from the Lewisville bridge by a detachment of the 19th Indiana regiment to-day.

ed to-day in the neighborhood of the Chain Bridge. NEW YORK, Sept. 12. Letters dated Caracas, Aug. 28, states that the Sumter was seen off Porto Cabello on the 14th with a new prize, supposed to be the bark Theresa, from Maracibo for New York loaded with coffee.

On the 14th a steamer flying the American flag passed the harbor, and reported the Key Stone State. The pilot who went out for her, reports that she was a new steamer, while the Key Stone State is five years old. It is surmised that the vessel assumed the said name for her own reasons.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 12. W. H. Winder a brother of the rebel general, is in custody charged with treasonable communication with the enemy. He has another brother, a resident of Washington and the owner of the Winder building there which is occupied by the Pension Bureau. Mr. W. H. Winder has been the Philadelphia correspondent of the Daily News. All his papers have been taken and are being examined by the authorities.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 12. It is the general opinion here that a general engagement cannot be much longer delayed. Good military critics however, declare that they expect no serious fighting for two or three weeks.

All was quiet at Chain Bridge last night and the rebels have not shown themselves this morning. NEW YORK, Sept. 12. M. C. Stanley was sent to Fort Lafayette to-day charged with enticing soldiers to desert and enlist in the rebel army.

STOCKBRIDGE, MASS., Sept. 12. Ex Governor George N. Briggs was wounded by the accidental discharge of a gun died this morning. LOUISVILLE, Sept. 12. At Frankfort, the senate passed a joint resolution from the house of representatives directing the government to demand the withdrawal of the confederate troops from the state, 26 to 8.

Senator Bissell to-day offered a joint resolution requesting the governor to urge on the federal and confederate authorities the immediate and unconditional withdrawal of all troops placed by either party on Kentucky soil. This lies over till to-morrow. Mr. Hutson to-day reported a bill to punish treason in the state. It was made the special order for to-morrow.

The bill making it felony, the waging of war against the United States, enlisting troops for the confederates, or inducing any one to do so, or parading with any company with the intent to join the confederates for the invasion of Kentucky by any citizen as confederate soldier, to be punishable by death. The act to go into effect in ten days, and not to be applicable to those who return to their allegiance within sixty days.

PELHAM, N. Y., Sept. 10. The case of Littlejohn against Greeley was called this afternoon, about 1 o'clock, and a jury empaneled. Justice Bacon of Utica presided. Hon. Henry Foster of Rome and C. B. Selwick of Syracuse, and Messrs. Marsh, Webb, and J. B. Churchill of Oswego, appeared for the plaintiff. J. T. Williams, Esq., of New York, Messrs. Porter and Caggar of Albany, and Messrs. Grant and Allen of Oswego, appeared for the defendant. The counsel for the defendant claimed the opening upon the issues made by the proceedings. Pending this discussion, the court took a recess.

Thurloe Weed, Esq., of Caggar, Albany, Van Vleet, Geo. O'Leary, and other notables were present. The Sheriff is after Gen. Lee with an attachment. It seems that the legislature of winter before last is to be thoroughly overhauled.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 12. The general sensation of to-day has been the arrival of the regular army force which was engaged in the battle of Wilson's Creek. The force comprises Totten's and Dubois batteries, and Adj. Sneed's battalion of infantry, in all about eight hundred in number. The train was expected to arrive at 1 o'clock, but did not reach here until nearly 2 P. M., to the great exhaustion of Gen. McKinstry's brigade, which was formed to do escort duty early in the morning; to the disappointment of thousands of spectators, who lined the streets through which the troops were to pass. The display of flags along the route was surprisingly fine. A great many well known secession families, anxious to prove their loyalty, had the stars and stripes hung out to the breeze from their mansions.

The regular troops have gone into camp at Benton barracks. Totten's and Dubois batteries are to be incorporated in Frank Blair's new artillery regiment. We shall have another military sensation to-morrow, upon the inauguration of Benton barracks.

There is nothing of importance from the interior to-night. The military commissioners had Richards, president of the North Missouri Bank, before them to-day but did not dispose of his case before adjournment. He is charged with aiding and abetting the enemy by raising men and providing means of venting traitorous doctrines.

Mr. Edward's case has a very bilious appearance. Special Despatch to the New York Tribune. WASHINGTON, Sept. 10. An effort was made to-day to check the firing between the pickets near Bailey's Cross Roads. Within a week two of our men were killed, Frank Coke and Daniel Sullivan of the 2d Michigan, and several rebels. This afternoon Captains Morse and Humphrey of the Michigan 2d, attached at white handkerchief to a stick, as a flag of truce, and left our lines, walking to the confederates. When seen approaching, a crowd of rebels, armed, gathered to receive them warily. Seeing the flag of truce, two only advanced to meet them. One brought a rifle within a few rods. His companion called his attention to it, it was laid down. The four introduced themselves as Captains John C. Porter and Thomas B. Nassie of the Virginia 7th, and asked if the visit was one of business or courtesy? They were informed that it was a visit of courtesy. They said such a visit should be received in like spirit, and shook hands cordially. Capt. Morse said the shooting of pickets had been a matter of much regret, and urged that it should stop. The rebel officers assented, and the four agreed to do all in their power to this end. The conversation lasted a half hour, when they separated, shaking hands. The rebel Capt. Porter was at the lights of the 10th and 21st July, but said he was glad no blood yet stained his hands. He has two cousins in the northern army. But, in spite of the agreement, picket-firing commenced all the afternoon, the same as before. Nobody was hurt.

A deputation of Philadelphia bankers, merchants and brokers, headed by the editor of the North American and Henry C. Carey, started this morning called upon the secretary of war and president and asked for security to Philadelphia by fortifying the Delaware at proper points, and arming a home guard of the Quaker City. Philadelphia will get all she wants. At this interview the president deeply impressed his hearers by appeals to them, and through them to all the active men in the nation to aim their guns at the common enemy, and suspend even criticism of the actions of the war machinery of the government, and of those departments that he knew to be conscientiously and effectively working for the public good.

The report that the Mississippi Tigers regiment, opposite Leesburg, have mutinied, is believed by the government. Postmaster-General Blair went to Missouri this afternoon. He will see what Gen. Fremont needs, and take measures to supply him.

A carefully prepared report, presented to the sanitary commission to-day, speaks very encouragingly of the condition of the troops at and near Alexandria. There were but few patients with diseases of a malarious type—much fewer than ten days since. The cases of diarrhea are diminishing. The little dysentery is of a very mild type. Gen. McClellan to-day restored to the New York 79th their forfeited colors. The Scotchmen received them with enthusiasm, and with oaths of fidelity. They gave three times three and a tiger to Secretary Cameron. There were few dry eyes in the regiment. After the war, the Secretary pledged, for the whole length of his life, his roof and purse to every man in the regiment who had been commanded by his brother, and had witnessed his death.

The rebel band on Munson's Hill on Sunday night played Dixie, and the Star Spangled Banner.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune. WASHINGTON, Sept. 12. The skirmish near Lewisville, yesterday has quickened the enthusiasm of all our troops, in view of the greater "skirmish" which cannot be far distant, and of which this one is regarded as but a preliminary touch. The particulars of the affair have been substantially covered in the general newspaper report, and yet there are some items which may be of some interest. Little damage was done by any of our shells, except by the first one thrown, our men not being then on the lookout. They were, however, from the distance of mile silenced the rebel battery, unseated a number of cavalry, and put the infantry to flight. Griffith's battery also did good work, firing in all some forty shells, which plumped among the rebels. Their (rebel) battery was supported by a regiment of cavalry and two of infantry. After the skirmish our cavalry went as far as Old Church, two miles from Lewisville, this side; but detected no enemy. Official figures place our loss at two killed and five wounded. General McClellan was received with the greatest enthusiasm by the returning troops, whom he met at their encampment. He warmly patted their good conduct under fire, spoke kindly to the wounded, and said to one of them, of the 79th—"I mistake you. You are brave men." The soldier's reply was—"No, General, we deserved your rebuke."

TO-DAY'S REPORT. (Prepared exclusively for the Daily Gazette.) MORNING DESPATCHES. WASHINGTON, Sept. 12. The following is Gen. Rosencranz' official report: CAMP SCOTT, Sept. 11. To C. E. B. Townsend:—We yesterday marched seventeen and a half miles, and reached the enemy's entrenched position in front of Carrizillo Ferry, driving his advanced outposts and pickets before us. We found him occupying a strongly entrenched position, covered by a forest too dense to admit of our firing from our guns. Besides the Van Vleet, Geo. O'Leary, and other notables were present. The Sheriff is after Gen. Lee with an attachment. It seems that the legislature of winter before last is to be thoroughly overhauled.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 12. The general sensation of to-day has been the arrival of the regular army force which was engaged in the battle of Wilson's Creek. The force comprises Totten's and Dubois batteries, and Adj. Sneed's battalion of infantry, in all about eight hundred in number. The train was expected to arrive at 1 o'clock, but did not reach here until nearly 2 P. M., to the great exhaustion of Gen. McKinstry's brigade, which was formed to do escort duty early in the morning; to the disappointment of thousands of spectators, who lined the streets through which the troops were to pass. The display of flags along the route was surprisingly fine. A great many well known secession families, anxious to prove their loyalty, had the stars and stripes hung out to the breeze from their mansions.

The regular troops have gone into camp at Benton barracks. Totten's and Dubois batteries are to be incorporated in Frank Blair's new artillery regiment. We shall have another military sensation to-morrow, upon the inauguration of Benton barracks.

There is nothing of importance from the interior to-night. The military commissioners had Richards, president of the North Missouri Bank, before them to-day but did not dispose of his case before adjournment. He is charged with aiding and abetting the enemy by raising men and providing means of venting traitorous doctrines.

Mr. Edward's case has a very bilious appearance. Special Despatch to the New York Tribune. WASHINGTON, Sept. 10. An effort was made to-day to check the firing between the pickets near Bailey's Cross Roads. Within a week two of our men were killed, Frank Coke and Daniel Sullivan of the 2d Michigan, and several rebels. This afternoon Captains Morse and Humphrey of the Michigan 2d, attached at white handkerchief to a stick, as a flag of truce, and left our lines, walking to the confederates. When seen approaching, a crowd of rebels, armed, gathered to receive them warily. Seeing the flag of truce, two only advanced to meet them. One brought a rifle within a few rods. His companion called his attention to it, it was laid down. The four introduced themselves as Captains John C. Porter and Thomas B. Nassie of the Virginia 7th, and asked if the visit was one of business or courtesy? They were informed that it was a visit of courtesy. They said such a visit should be received in like spirit, and shook hands cordially. Capt. Morse said the shooting of pickets had been a matter of much regret, and urged that it should stop. The rebel officers assented, and the four agreed to do all in their power to this end. The conversation lasted a half hour, when they separated, shaking hands. The rebel Capt.
